The College of Health Sciences Library hosted the Association for Health Information and Libraries in Africa (Kenya Chapter) popularly known as KEN-AHILA meeting on 21st February, 2017.

The meeting which was held in the KAVI Boardroom between 10.00am and 1.00pm brought together Medical librarians from various Health Institutions and discussed among other issues:

- The need to improve on Health Information provision
- Training of members and health care givers
- Promotion of health information to users and revitalization of the Kenya Chapter through individual and institutional member recruitment and the need to develop a Chapter website to help upload the Chapter activities.
